

Emilio MIGUEL MITRE, Valladolid (España), 1957,

SHORT PROFESSIONAL INFO

Architect specialized in Building Construction (University of Valladolid, 1982), 1983 Fulbright-Hays and 1984 ITT scholar. MEP (Master of Environmental Planning) specialized in Bioclimatic Architecture, ASU (Arizona State University, 1985), AIA (American Institute of Architects) graduation award. Specialist in Environmental Technology, (University of Valladolid, 1992) Specialist in HVAC Engineering (University of Valladolid, 1994). VERDE Accredited Evaluator (2009).

Region of Castilla y Leon (Spain) Honour Award on International Projection on Sustainable Building (2010).

Founder and Director of International Affairs of GBCE (Green Building Council España, since 2008). Chair of the Education Taskforce of the Europe Regional Network of WorldGBC 2010-2012. Director at the iiSBE's BoD. Representative of UNEP-SBCI, CIB, FIDIC and iiSBE as World Co-ordinator of the Regional SB13 (Sustainable Building Conferences of year 2013); International Representative and Executive Committee member of the World SB Conference 2014 Barcelona organized by GBCE.

Participation in a number of EU Sustainable Building research, innovation and demonstration projects since 1985 such as Energy Comfort 2000, Best 2000, PASCOOL, Altener Houses, etc., as energy consultant, Architect and co-ordinator.

Founder of ALIA, Arquitectura, Energía y Medio Ambiente s.l. in 2001. Remarkable residential projects are the social housing consultancy for EMGIASA (Alcorcón, Madrid), nominated for the 7th UNESCO International Good Practices competition; 1st Ecodistricts prize of the Superior Council of the Architectural Professional Associations and 1st prize of Urban Sustainable Development of the IDAE.

In the non-residential, ALIA has participated with buildings of their own in the last four World Sustainable Building Conferences: FEUGA Building in Santiago de Compostela (World SB02 Oslo), TRASLUZ Building in Madrid (World SB05 Tokyo), ARFRISOL Barredo in Asturias (SB08 Melbourne), and ENVITE in Valladolid (World SB11 Helsinki), supported by the Ministry of Science and Innovation of Spain.

Very active in education, communication and dissemination, with undergraduate and graduate courses in a number of Spanish Universities, and many international interventions, amounting more than one hundred articles and more than three hundred public interventions, increasingly including keynote speeches lately.

Participation as juror in numerous international sustainable building competitions, mainly organized by Green Building councils, being lately involved, among others, as juror in Solar Decathlon 2012.

October 2013

www.alia-es.com www.gbce.es