

Associate Professor Małgorzata GRODZIŃSKA-JURCZAK

SHORT PROFESSIONAL INFO

Institute of Environmental Sciences, Jagiellonian University Krakow, Poland

Research interests: Human dimension of natural resources, human-nature conflicts' management in protected areas, environmental governance, Natura 2000 implementation (communication, public consulting, awareness raising), public participation in decision making on environmental issues (e.g. nature conservation, solid waste management), applying scientific achievements into policy & economic sectors of various scales (local to the EU), environmental awareness of public, environmental education in formal and non-formal system.

- Head of Nature Conservation and Environmental Education Research Team
- Coordinator, Board Member of national (e.g. MNiSW, NFOŚiGW, WFOŚiGW) and international (eg. 6, 7 PR EU, EOG, Fulbright, CEU) research and educational projects
- Lecturer in „Environmental Education”, „Socio-economic aspects of nature conservation”, “Policy of nature conservation” and “Research Management” for Polish and international students
- Tutor of B.Sc., M.Sc. and PhD thesis of Polish and international candidates
- Faculty Coordinator of ERASMUS Students’ Exchange Programme
- Member of the University Commission of Post-Graduate Studies
- Member of the Editorial Boards and a regular referee to national and international peer-reviewed scientific journals and scientific committees
- Assessment expert on national (NCBR, NCN) and international projects (e.g. EOG, 7 PR EU)
- Member of „Doctus” Award Program Commission

Non-university services

- Consultant to Polish People’s Party and Polish Association of Rural Boroughs on developing Act of Environmental Compensation (2012-to date)

- Consultant to the Małopolska Governour on public communication and public relations in nature conservation sector (2011-to date)
- Consultant on Natura 2000 public consulatation to Regional Directorate of Nature Conservation in Krakow (2009-to date)
- IUCN – Member of Commission on Education and Communication (CEC) (2011-to date)
- Expert of Polish Ecology Chamber in the field of nature protection (2012-to date)
- Member of Scientific Board of Małopolska Children University (2009-to date)
- Trainer and Facilitator (4th level of European Qualification Scheme) served to various institutions mainly on public participation approach in nature conservation (2009-to date),
- Expert of the Polish Ministry of Education and Sport on ecological education curricula, (2003–to date)
- Consultant to the local authorities on environmental education strategy, waste management policy and social aspects of nature conservation (2002–to date),
- Consultant to schools and teachers on development of environmental education curricula – (2002–to date)
- Board Member of Małopolska Fund of Environmental Protection and Water Management (2008-to date).

Honors and Awards:

- Jagiellonian University Rector Awards Awards for Scientists, 2004
- Ph.D. thesis distinguished by the Polish Prime Minister Prize, 1996
- Jagiellonian University Rector Awards for Students, 1986-90