

Mariapia Viola-Magni

SHORT PROFESSIONAL INFO

General Pathology professor from 1975 at Perugia University and Director of the Institute,
She has published 240 papers most in the International Journal:

Scientific fields of interest are

- cell proliferation in vivo and in vitro;
- non premitotic DNA synthesis;
- tumor cell proliferation and oncogene expression;
- gene expression in hepatocytes during neonatal maturation and liver regeneration;
- presence of a phospholipidic fraction in hepatocyte chromatin and its metabolism.

She was also Rector delegate for international affairs for the University and participates to many projects In particular she created the School for Technician, the Doctorate in cell and Molecular Pathology, the Consortium of University and Enterprises ,TUCEP.

From 1976 a network in Biotechnology was created with the support of Europe and two international courses “Job creation oriented Biotechnology” and “Biotechnology Medical Application” were created. She was President of European Biotechnology Thematic Network Association (EBTNA) and actually is President of onlus research Fondation Enrico Puccinelli.